RENO, WASHOE COUNTY, NEVADA

Condition of California.

The recent floods are of course the main topic of discussion in our neighbor State, and it is about time to begin to cast up the results. The entire valley of the Sacramento, which is subject to inundation, now stands under water. Every levee, except that surrounding Sacramento, has been broken, and every island in the river save one is submerged. Crops have been destroyed, and in many places the prospect of crops for next year has been covered by the mud. The loss of live stock by the flood has been comparatively small, and human life has escaped almost miraculously, but growing crops and the works of former years have been swept away in a day.

The Bee thinks there is no use of leveeing against such floods, and the press of the entire State is demanding of the Legislature some practical and lasting relief.

On the Highlands, and in the foothills abundant crops are assured by the copious rains. In the Northern portion of the State the damage has also been great, and relief is demanded from the Legislature.

Among other measures, a general no-fence law is in view, it being argued that farmers whose crops and fences have been washed away need some protection outside of their own efforts.

Many thousands of orange trees are being planted in the foothills during the present season.

The Bee gives the rainfall for the season: Sacramento, 19.50; San Rafael 42.35; Petaluma, 28.08; Visalia, 7.89; Colusa, 21.82; Jackson, 24.17; Nevada City, 34.78; Santa Rosa, 33.30; Lower Lake, 38.80; Alameda, 18.35; San Jose, 15.50; Woodland, 20.14; Weaverville, 46.68; Grayson, 8.53; Antioch, 11.88; Yreka, 14.54; Chico, 37.29; Marysville, 16.88; San Diego, 9.29; Stockton, 13.29; Healdsburg, 62.97; Santa Cruz, 27.53; Watsonville, 15.52. And the following figures are up till the 18th instant: Oakland, 11.54; Niles, 15.19; Pleasanton, 15.46; Livermore, 10.60; Midway, 7.12; Ellis, 7.43; Lathrop, 9.34; Galt, 12.35; Brighton, 15.88; Auburn, 21.72; Ione, 12.68; Modesto, 7.59; Merced, 7.41; Fresno, 5.37; Tulare, 3.04; Delano 3.04; Sumner, 4.52; Caliente, 9.23; Kern, 8.60; Tehachipe, 8.37; San Mateo, 19.05; San Jose, 11.83; Gilroy, 17.93; Hollister, 11.85; Pajaro, 18.62; Salinas, 14.28; Soledad, 9.10; Mission San Jose, 14.09; Los Angeles, 13.77.

Thomas C. Anderson, about whose trial in New Orleans lately so much has been said, was sentenced on Saturday last to two years at hard labor and costs. Rather a strange state of affairs this. Democrats try their opponents and conviction is assured. They vote Pacheco out of Congress when every decision in his State sustained him. They vote Darrall out of Congress when his majority was 2,000. They try Anderson before a public defaulter, and after a Grand Jury had failed to indict, motion for a new trial was denied of course, and sentence has been pronounced. There seems to be a reasonable prospect that the Democratic party will kill itself before 1890, and one thing is assured, the people will no longer endure this unscrupulous partisan spirit, which deliberately ignores the facts and merits of every case.

The Silver State is unkind enough to suggest that if Jones is worthy of commendation, Sharon is equally worthy of censure. Kelly can't see why Sharon should not resign, and wants the men who applaud Jones to tell him so in order that they may wear the jewelry of consistency. Kelly says that Sharon draws his salary and don't do anything therefore. This subject has all been discussed before, friend, and if you have never heard the good and efficient reasons for Sharon's action, we shall not take the trouble to repeat them. The late W. S. Wood thought Sharon a great man, and that is enough for us.

All available space in the American department of the Paris Exposition has been assigned, and we argue from that fact a successful exposition for the Parisians. We thought for a time of going to your show ourselves, but the passage of the silver bill has changed our notion. Apropos of going, it is said that Mr. Economy made the trip for $500, and that Mr. Goodfellow might easily return at an expense of $1,000.

Governor Bryan is having trouble again about his official acts.

The Utah Legislature adjourned on Saturday last after passing a new election law. This law provides for registration and a secret ballot, and was signed by the Governor. Polygamous marriages are reported to be increasing rather than decreasing in Utah. A commission lately appointed by the Gentile residents is now in Washington trying to induce Congress to prohibit the evil of the Mormon's. Every honest man believes that the unhung villains in Utah are multiplying their rights to criminal prosecutions daily, and it has long been a matter of self respect with our Government to regulate this matter. If, however, it is desirable to maintain a section in the middle of our continent which shall perpetuate the manner and customs of Turkey, Congress will say so by masterly inactivity when this subject is proposed.

Duncan has been juggled, and in a very few moments after the cell door closed a reporter's nose was sticking through a crack and lighting up the apartment. Duncan says he didn't go to do it at all; that he has sacrificed everything which his son had to keep the bank afloat, and then couldn't make it. He lays all his grief at the doors of the Bank of California. Had that institution not failed, &c., &c. Duncan, like all other philanthropic bankers, always scorned filthy lucre, he toiled for the people, and his labors were thwarted by bold, bad men. He did not know that an attempt to escape would cast a suspicion upon his conduct, but probably wanted to save taxpayers the expense of prosecution. His assets when captured consisted of $1 50 and a lady's outfit for purpose of disguise.

Neil Dow, the total abstinence fanatic, recently declared that selling liquor was a more heinous crime than the perpetration of either arson or murder.

Dow was in the war and held some office—Colonel we believe. It became his pleasant duty once to confiscate a large lot of liquors in one of the Southern States. Dow sold them for the benefit of the Government and put the benefit in his pocket. We have a distinct and abiding belief that men of the Dow stamp talk to loud.

The Lower House of the South Carolina Legislature has a speaker who attends to public affairs in a gown which cost $500. We don't know this man's name, but venture the assertion that his head is built like an alcon, and would be easily covered with a No. 2 hat.

The survey of San Diego harbor reveals the fact that the conformation of the water line has not changed since 1859 and of 7,000 soundings taken none differ from those marked on the chart of that year.

The Idaho Avalanche is not well pleased at the appointment of a West Virginia man to be U. S. Marshal for Idaho. We do not blame the Avalanche. There are surely citizens of Idaho who could fill that position.

The body of Wm. McMahon was found in the Columbia river at Portland Sunday. He had been missing two weeks. There are suspicions of foul play.

The King of the Stockton hoodlums, convicted of robbery, has been sentenced to the State Prison for seven years.

The Workingmen of Humboldt county want a new deal in State officers. "One Term" is their motto.

General Buckner and W. L. French are named as candidates for the Judgeship in Humboldt.

Thomas Stephens shot a man named Marvin, Friday, at Rainer, Oregon, inflicting a dangerous wound.

The National Gold Medal was awarded to Bradley & Rolofson for the best photographs in the United States, and the Vienna Medal for the best in the world.

Hooile & Co.'s Hair Tonic will prevent your hair from falling out, cleanse the scalp of dandruff, and renew its growth. It is a splendid hair dressing. Try it.

Hooile & Co.'s Mystic Balm will prevent corns chapped hands or face—render them soft as velvet and white as snow. Warranted to cure or money returned.

Hooile & Co.'s Moth and Fleckle Eradicator will beautify the complexion, remove freckles and moth spots—is a harmless and splendid compound for the toilet.

NEW COMERS.—Tandy & Cook respectfully inform the citizens of Reno that they have leased the Bidden photograph gallery for a short time, and will be pleased to receive the patronage of all who are aiming to get first class pictures of themselves. We guarantee our work to be equal in tone and finish to that produced at the first galleries of San Francisco. We will remain in Reno but a few weeks, and feel confident that we will satisfy all who may favor us with their patronage during that time. Respectfully, TANDY & COOK. 1-34tf

The Local Editor.

The Belmont Courier man shows what it is to be a local editor:

If a man buys a new buggy, or if his cow can bawl three times without winking, the local is expected to proclaim it with a grand flourish. If he starts a two-penny business, his first thought is to bribe the local with a five-cent cigar to write up a five-dollar puff. Indeed, he thinks it is a mission of the local to make his fortune for him by "free blowing." He will take the local to one side and point out the superior qualities of a rat-terrier dog, and coolly ask him to give him a hoist. He don't care anything about it, only Spriggins has a dog which he thinks is a buster, and some of 'em wanted his "put in" just to "take the conceit out of Spriggins." Everybody wants to be "put in." They are the "Great I am," but no one says, "Here local put yourself inside of this new suit of clothes, or throw yourself outside of this oyster-stew, or stuff this watch into your pocket." Oh no, of course not; that would cost something. The shoe is on the other foot you see. The local is supposed to know everything about other people's business, and is expected to show up all the actors in every family broil in town. If the vile tongue of scandal finds a victim, people wonder why he don't run about with his note book and gather up the vituperative bits of slander for his paper. If he steps into a billiard hall he is requested to make a note of the fact that Bill Tompkins has made a run of eleven points. When the minstrel troupe arrives in town, the agent immediately rushes into the printing office, and, calling for the local, slips three or four tickets in his hand and whispers: "Draw us a big house! Put it in strong!" and patting him patronizingly on the shoulder, the agent admits the inferiority of the troupe, but we are not to let on. It is no sin for the local to lie. To please the lecturer the local is forced to sit two mortal hours to hear him through an insipid discourse so that he can "write it up." And so it goes. All are anxious to appear in print, but few are willing to pay for it. The local's time is worth nothing but to bother his head writing puffs for ambitious persons. It don't cost anything to live. He never eats, or drinks, or travels, and money is of no use to him. Put it in! Put it in.

CHARLES COURTIS, JOHN BOYD.

Courtois & Boyd,

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Is a Change needed.

Several days ago our attention was called to some matters concerning Mr. Cantrell's management of his department in our public school. We looked upon the matter as a mere misunderstanding of the teacher's motive or conduct, and counselled parents to advise their children, in order that the teacher's work might be a pleasure instead of the source of quarrels and punishment. We are now of the opinion that the trouble and threatened disorder was greater than we believed, and that Mr. Cantrell is not as successful as could be wished in his management. We can not understand how there should ever be strife between a teacher and any small boy under his charge, and this seems to be the case at present in Mr. Cantrell's room.

Although it is not at all necessary to blame the teacher for this state of affairs, it is highly important that such disorderly behavior should be corrected. It would be very unfortunate if misrule should obtain where we have been pleased to note order and studious application. If there are any boys in Mr. Cantrell's department who can not be governed, the Trustees should send them home. If, on the other hand, Mr. Cantrell is inefficient, or unable to govern his scholars, he should be promptly removed, and his successor appointed. Such a course would prevent much unnecessary trouble and loss of valuable time.

PERHAPS MARRIED.—Last Wednesday the County Clerk issued a marriage license to Mr. Alexander J. Coady and Miss Emily J. Thorp. Last Friday evening, if we are not misinformed, Rev. Wm. Lucas married a couple in the Episcopal Church. The parties whom he married desired that he should not mention the matter nor have the license recorded for two weeks' time from the date of their marriage. We have received no authoritative notice that any one has been married. Every person to whom secrecy has been enjoined, has, as far as we know, most faithfully kept their promise. We do not state that the above named parties have been married, we only mention certain facts leaving our readers to draw their own conclusions. If the herein named parties have been married we wish them a jolly honeymoon and a life of unalloyed happiness. If this is not the couple then we have missed our guess, and the parties who were married last Friday night have kept their license longer than one month. Better tell the newspapers at once if you are married, or else they will find you out anyway and then they will publish the item.

NEVADA FLOUR MILL.—The Nevada State mill is quietly working away from early morn until the hour when men retire to rest. The amount of work being done may be seen from the following statements: Amount of flour made each day, 40 barrels; ground barley, an average of 250 tons per month. In addition, there is a large quantity of corn meal and Graham flour made each month. Mr. Boles informs us that the mill readily disposes of all it can grind, and were the capacity of the mill greater, the demand for flour and ground feed would be greater. The mill turns out good flour, and is under the best management. If a flour mill pays here, why would not a tannery, woolen mill and other industries prove profitable? Let capital give this matter a second thought. Reno presents, in our judgment, excellent opportunities for the profitable investment of capital. Men of enterprise and capital are what we want, and we throw out from time to time such suggestions as present themselves for the present consideration and future action of this class of men.

From the Reno witnesses in the Breen-Cowie-Chouey affair we learn that this most interesting case was called before Justice Moses yesterday morning in Virginia City. Cowie and Breen were granted separate trials. Cowie's case came up for trial at 10 A. M. to-day. Breen will be tried at the same hour to-morrow. Wm. Woodburn appears as counsel for Breen, Jonas Seely for the innocent babe Cowie. Marked attention is being given these cases.

The V. & T. R. R. is doing a good business just at present in passenger and freight traffic.

Incorporation.

The Trustees of the Washoe Land and Water Company to-day filed the articles of incorporation of said Company in the County Clerk's office. Object of Company—To construct a canal from the Truckee river, near Bronco in Nevada county, California, through a portion of Sierra county, in said State, near the town of Crystal Peak, and thence into Washoe county, Nevada, to Peonie, Cottonwood, Warm Spring and Spanish Spring valleys, and other points along the line of said canal, for the purpose of irrigating desert lands there situated, and also for the purpose of acquiring, reclaiming and disposing of such desert lands as may be irrigated from said canal; also for the purpose of using water and disposing of the same, that may be conducted through said canal, or for the purposes of irrigation and such other purposes as the same may be lawfully used for.

The amount of its capital stock is $500,000 in U. S. gold coin, divided into 100,000 shares, of the par value of $5 per share. Time of its corporate existence shall be fifty years from the date of its incorporation. Principal place of business, Reno, Nevada.

The business of this Company will be transacted by five Trustees to be elected every six months. The following named gentlemen are the present Trustees: C. A. Bragg, W. R. Chamberlain, and Jas. H. Kinkadee, of Reno, and J. H. Neff and W. B. Hayford, of Colfax, California.

Incorporators.—Thos. E. Haydon, W. B. Hayford, H. W. Higgins, R. L. Fulton, W. R. Chamberlain, C. A. Bragg, A. J. Hatch, J. H. Neff, Jas. H. Kinkadee, M. Lobner, Jno. C. Coleman, Edward Coleman and Chas. T. Bender.

Doc. Hutchins has bonded a mine in Table Mountain just over the Churchill county line, for Virginia City or San Francisco men. As they seem in no hurry to begin work, it is supposed to be a colonizing scheme to carry Churchill county at the next election.—Silver State.

Either that is not Dr. Fred Hutchins or the Silver State must be mistaken. The interest taken in this evening's session of the Reno Lyceum, depends upon the spirit in which its members act and speak. A live lyceum is of positive benefit to everyone who attends. A half life institution had better throw up the glove. The Silver bill will be discussed to-night, and we shall look forward to a most interesting meeting this evening.

C. H. Belknap, Mayor of Virginia City, and H. Bennett, Supt. of the Cable Mining Company, were in town to-day attending to some points connected with the law suit between the Golden Fleece Mining Company vs. the Cable Mining Company. This case, which was to have been tried yesterday, has been reset for trial the second Monday in April.

Mackey is making good his word that Nevada should be represented at the Paris Exposition next July. Last night fourteen boxes of specimens from various mines on the Comstock lode passed westward addressed "J. W. Mackey, Paris, France." Let Mackey receive assistance in his good work from the various mining districts of this State.

A gentleman who had exercised commendable zeal in Rover's behalf was asked what he thought of Duncan's capture. But before he could give answer, a couple of old jokers obtained audience, and gave it, with apparent seriousness, as their opinion, the one that Duncan was crazy, the other that he was innocent. The allusion is as plain as it is harmless.

J. E. Jones, of Pyramid, this morning took his departure for that camp. He has sublime faith in the Jones & Kinkadee, and we trust that his faith is founded in good rock, so that should discouraging winds blow and the rain of misfortune fall, his ore rock shall pan out the silver bricks in more than compensating abundance.

Messrs. Osburn and Shoemaker are making most tasty improvements in and about their drug store. By the by these gentlemen have a drug store noted for the very best medicines, drugs, toilet articles, etc. All of which they know how to present to the needy for a small consideration of filthy lucre.

General Crook says that there will not be an expedition organized against Sitting Bull in the Spring. If this item hits the Bull's eye he learns also that our Weekly Gazette is $4 per year.

How the sweet little mouth of the festive school-girl waters as she gazes longingly at that luscious chocolate cream on provoking display at Chas. Kinet's store. We fancy, too, that the unromantic boy has set down in his mind what he would quickly do with a ten cent piece were this coveted coin in his possession.

All of the witnesses of behalf of Bunting and Harrison have been heard in the District Court. This afternoon the C. P. folks present their evidence, which we presume will be concluded to-morrow. It may thus be possible that this case may be terminated by Thursday night.

Tom Julien and Doc. Hutchins have rich mines in their hands. They think of building an infirmary, several churches, and clearing the debt on the Episcopal Seminary within a few months.

CARD OF THANKS.

We, the undersigned, wish to tender our thanks to Mr. J. A. Brunway, State Agent, and Mr. James H. Marshall, City Agent of the Home Mutual Fire Insurance Company of San Francisco, for the highly satisfactory and unprecedented manner in which the representatives of the above named Company have settled their portion of the loss which we sustained at the late fire on Frisbie's corner. We take great pleasure in recommending the Home Mutual Insurance Company to the insuring public for honest, square, and high-toned dealing.

INSURE in the Home Mutual. If your property is destroyed by fire and you are fortunate enough to hold one of our policies, your money is ready and paid when you most need it. No litigation or trouble.

ALLEN C. DRAGO, Agent.

Northern News.

Rev. A. P. White labors with sinful Quincy.

Mr. W. T. Byers, County Clerk of Plumas, is expected to return from his Eastern visit soon.

Quincyites remonstrate against a proposed law to reduce telegraphic rates. They say it will close the Plumas line.

The National says: Last week there was four dollars and a bit circulating in town, but some penurious cuss has been "sinking," and now there's only seven bits afloat.

Four Chinamen were under arrest in Quincy for aiding and abetting the escape of Ah Sam. The latter was taken below in snow, and his friends were discharged.

A Company has been formed at Janesville to extend the telegraph line from Susanville to that place.

The Plumas Ditch Company anticipate a six months' run of water this season—and that calls for lots of coin.

A grand ball was the attraction at Beckworth, February 22d. Thought Bringham would have mentioned it.

Plumas county is $20,000 less in debt than three months ago. That is a healthy county.

The Justice Court furnishes not an item, and Richardson is now seriously considering certain methods by which his months' rent shall be paid. Wood and chickens are in demand in our market.

A strong wind has been blowing from the southwest during the afternoon. This is the direction for a storm, and the air, clouds and barometer indicate rain or snow.

An excellent poem entitled "The Oath of the Seven" will appear to-morrow.

R. E. Queen practical druggist and manufacturing chemist. All medicinal and toilet preparations made in my laboratory will be of first quality and sold at reasonable prices. Personal attention given to physicians' prescriptions.

SITUATION WANTED.—By a woman capable of doing all kinds of cooking and general house work. Apply at A. J. Clark's. 2-21-1w.

TO RENT.—A hard finished house of five rooms. Inquire of Wm. H. Mee, corner of Lake and Second streets. 2-20-1f.

JUST ARRIVED.—800 pounds fresh candy, all kinds, warranted free from all injurious coloring. Call and see it at W. H. Holmes & Co's., two doors east of Postoffice. 2-9-1m.

C. J. Brookins & Co. have pianos and organs for sale or to rent. Terms reasonable. 11 51f

At Osburn & Shoemaker's drug store, prescriptions—at prices to suit the times—are prepared at all hours of the day and night by a regular graduate of a college of Pharmacy. 2-13-1f.

REMOVAL.—Yankee Dodge has removed to the store formerly occupied by Messrs Brown & Harney, where he will be pleased to see his friends and patrons. He will keep constantly on hand a general assortment of Yankee notions and fancy goods, and sell them cheaper than any other house in Reno. We will have an auction sale every Saturday evening. Be sure and give us a call before purchasing elsewhere. Don't forget the place, opposite the Reno Opera House, Virginia street. 1-7-1f

Themes For Lecturers.

The gods of the valleys are not the gods of the hills.—Ethan Allen.

Acquire the character of oddity, and you seat yourself in an easy-chair for life.—Thaddeus of Warsaw.

There never was a jar or discord between genuine sentiment and common sense; never did nature say one thing and reason another.—Burke.

Stories first heard at a mother's knee are never wholly forgotten—a little spring that never quite dries up in our journey through scorching years.—Ruffin.

In poverty we have no flattering things said of us. In short a poor man is looked upon both by acquaintances and relations as an outcast.—Arabian Nights.

Watch yourself. Be your own accuser, then your judge; say yourself grace sometimes, and, if there is need, impose upon yourself some pain.—Seneca.

A more glorious victory cannot be gained over another man than this, that when the injury began on his part, the kindness should begin on ours.—Willotson.

Rhetoric in serious discourses is like the flowers in corn; pleasing to those who come only for amusement, but prejudicial to those who would profit from it.—Swift.

Clearness of ideas must be cultivated by exercising the intuition, and the pupil must be educated to independent activity in the use of his own understanding.—Seneca.

It is said that he or she who admits the possession of a secret has already half revealed it. Certainly it is a great deal gained toward the acquisition of a treasure to know exactly where it is.—Simms.

There are souls which fall from Heaven like flowers; but ere the pure and fresh buds can open, they are trodden in the dust of the earth and lie soiled and crushed under the foul tread of some brutal hoof.—Richter.

Too much reproach "overleaps itself and falls on 't'other side." Picked up too sharply, the delinquent, like a goaded bull, grows sullen and savage, and the persecution continuing, ends in rushing madly at the spear that wounds him.—Boove.

Curiosity in children is but an appetite after knowledge; and, therefore, it ought to be encouraged in them, not only as a sign, but as the great instrument nature has provided to remove the ignorance they were born with.—Locke.
